HOBART MINISTER

On behalf of the Hobart congregation Mr. Van Rooijen called for a continuance of the subsidy for the Minister of that Congregation. "A Minister is essential to Hobart to give some Jewish education to Jewish children and that Congregation."

Mr. B. Cowan explained that the subsidy was originally provided on the understanding that an orthodox Minister be engaged, but when that failed the subsidy was extended on the understanding that the Rev. M. Reuben would continue according to traditional usage.

NEW YEAR FAST FOR JEWRY

JEWRY throughout the world begin 16 days of penitence tonight as they prepare to usher in their new year—No. 5713 in the Hebrew calendar.

The 16th day of the Jewish year is known as the Day of Atonement. It is a day of fasting and prayer and on the evening of that day with the observance of 16th day.

In Hobart Jewish New Year Eve services will begin this evening at the Synagogue, Apple St.

The service will be conducted by the Rev. D. W. Rubin, who will also conduct the New Year Day service on Saturday evening.

The Day of Atonement will be on Monday, September 22, and a Kol Nidre service will be conducted in the Synagogue on Saturday, September 21, by Mr. Rubin.
