

British Chief Rabbi Due In Hobart Tomorrow

THE Very Rev. Israel Brodie, leader of the Jewish faith in the British Commonwealth, will begin a two-day visit to Tasmania tomorrow, arriving at Cambridge aerodrome at 10.25 a.m.

Chief Rabbi Brodie, who will be accompanied by his wife, will be welcomed by the Attorney-General (Mr. Fagan), representing the Government, and a State car will be placed at his disposal.

The Jewish leader will be entertained to luncheon at Government House at 12.55 p.m. and a civic reception will be given by the Lord Mayor (Mr. Park) at 4 p.m.

In the evening, Chief Rabbi Brodie and Mrs. Brodie will be the dinner guests of the Hobart Hebrew congregation's president (Mr. H. Jacobs). A service in the Synagogue will commence at 8 p.m.

Later, Mr. Jacobs and members of the Hobart congregation will entertain the visitors to supper at Wrest Point.

The Chief Rabbi will travel to Launceston on Thursday morning, leaving Hobart at 9 a.m. He will lunch with the president of the Launceston Hebrew community (Mr. S. Crawcour) and Mrs. Crawcour, and will lead a service in the Synagogue at 1.45 p.m.

He will be guest at a civic reception tendered by the Mayor (Mr. Thyne) at 3 p.m. and will leave on return to Melbourne at 4 p.m. from Western Junction airport.
